Party on 90th Birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Phillee of South Moline street, Alton, entertained at a dinner Monday, January 13, in honor of the nineteenth birthday of Miss Mary L. Kelly of Rock Island, an aunt of Mr. Phillee, who is spending the winter in that city.

Miss Kelly is hale and hearty for one of her age, and retains a keen sense of humor and her stories of the "good old times" are most interesting and entertaining. She was born in Ghary, Saratoga county, New York, January 13, 1829, and came to Illinois in 1841. She is the only surviving member of a family of eight children. A brother, Rev. David Kelly, was a Presbyterian minister of the early days. For one of her age she has a very clear mind and good memory and keeps well informed on important events of the present day. She is a charter member of the Old Settlers' association of Rock Island county, a member of the Woman's club of Rock Island and also a member of the Rock Island County Historical society. She has always been and still is keenly interested in the young people and their doings. Her education was received in a private school in Rock Island and at a young ladies' seminary in St. Louis, of which institution she afterwards became a faculty member.

Miss Kelly attended the Sunday school picnic on July 4, 1845, the day Colonel Davenport was murdered and is one of the very few living who attended the funeral on the island at Rock Island.

The color scheme at the dinner was patriotic, the red, white and blue. Ninety lighted candles illuminated the table during the hour.

A NEW COAT DRESS FOR SPRING WEAR

The coat dress probably will be one of the prominent features of the spring garments according to the earliest advance notices received. The suits themselves look more like frocks than anything else, so that it will be hard to tell whether a woman has removed her coat or not. Satin which had a pronounced vogue in the fall will again be prominent for afternoon frocks, restaurant costumes and trottier suits.

The coat dress pictured is something new, being a combination of black satin and blue duvetyne. The high collar is copied from winter styles and will be very comfortable for the chiller days of spring. The long straight lines of the coat, giving it a Russian blouse effect, and the bell-shaped sleeves are noteworthy features.

Gray sueda oxfords are worn with the suit and the hat, which tops it is of straw and black satin.

Boiled beans can be served with a salad dressing into which has been put a hard-boiled egg, the yolk rubbed into the dressing and the white chopped over the whole.

Marking linen is an easy matter if you first starch the linen and iron it very smooth.
